THE SENATOR ARRIVES IN

The Col. E. L. Drake Comes for Oil Barge—Buccleuch, Mary Hackfield and Strathgriffe go to Sea—The Rajore Did Not Get Out—Other Notes.

Conditions at the bar were not bad yesterday though there was some swell. The day opened with the wind blowing from the east at 10 miles an hour, the weather being cloudy and the bar moderate. At noon the wind had increased to 12 miles and toward evening the wind fell to five miles an hour at 4 o'clock and had shifted to the south east. The bar remained moderate all day until evening when it was reported smooth.

Captain Wm. Hull, formerly of the Wenona, has assumed command of the steamer Jordan, which has taken the place of the R. Miller, on the Deep River run.

The lighthouse tender Armeria will leave out this morning for Puget Sound, to deliver the moorings of lightship No. 76.

The British ship Buccleuch was towed to sea yesterday.

The British bark Largo Bay was to have left out on her long voyage to the United Kingdom, yesterday but did not get away.

The French bark Pierri Loti which has been awaiting orders, here, received them yesterday to go to Portland and will probably leave up today.

The German bark Mary Hackfield came down the river, from Portland yesterday morning and left out in the afternoon.

IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The Senate today discussed the propriety of authorizing one of its committees to investigate the circumstances connected with the issuance of an injunction at the instance of the Hitchman Coal & Coke Company against John Mitchell by John Grayson, of the federal circuit court of the northern district of West Virginia. Culberson asked to have a resolution for that purpose adopted and Hale thought it should not harass judges in their decisions and he did not favor such a resolution unless there was considerable ground for believing the judge had exceeded his authority. Considerable time was spent considering the bill to revise the penal code and at 4:12 the Senate adjourned.

GOVERNOR HUGHES SPEAKS.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 21.—In a letter to James S. Lehman, Governor Hughes tonight publicly declared his attitude toward the movement to favor his nomination for the Presidency, and appointed Friday evening of next week to meet with the Republican Club of New York, when he will more definitely declare himself.

The Governor expresses the desire that the sentiment of the party have the freest expression and such action taken as for its best interests. He says he does not seek the office, nor attempt to influence any delegate. He has no interest in any factional controversy and desires above all things there should be deliberation, honest expression of party will and the harmony of effort. Whatever its decision, Governor Hughes says, he will be content.
